Varsity girls' basketball players strive to keep control. Check out these girls cheering for their friends.

These J. V. and Varsity cheerleaders get ready to act goofy and crazy in the gym after lunch.

Tony Buehler takes a drink of his juice after an exhausting day at school. The Marching Band at half-time plays a song before the team comes back from their break.

"EXPRESS YOURSELF"

"EXPRESS YOURSELF" is the theme for 1991-1992 yearbook. The definition of "EXPRESS YOURSELF" is hanging out with your friends and doing whatever makes the "REAL" you shine through. There are many ways Ingots express themselves not only in Ingoland but also at home or after school activities and sports. But the real heart is in Ingoland where you find students expressing themselves in the halls, and classroom and during lunch time or any part of the day. Even the principal, Mr. McIntyre expresses himself in his new office.

right: Mr. McIntire and his secretary, Mrs. DeVries, interrupt a conference.

River Forest Ingots vs.

North Newton Spartans GO INGOTS!!!!!!#1

The 1991-1992 Homecoming will be one the Ingots will never forget. This was a homecoming that the Ingots lost to the North Newton Spartans 16 to 26. The football team was winning at first but the North Newton team surprised the Ingots by turning the game around for a win. Richie Otero states, "I felt the game was a big disappointment for the team, but we made mistakes and we got down on ourselves too hard when we were behind." But the football game wasn't the only event happening that cold mid-September evening. It was the night that the new Homecoming Queen of 1991-1992 was to be crowned. The members of the Senior court were Alicia Alfaro, Marsha Gutierrez, Kim House, Tanya McAllister, and Jennifer Wendrickx. The senior class elected Kim House to be the 1991-1992 Football Homecoming Queen. Kim's response was, "It's a great honor to be crowned homecoming queen, and I was very surprised when my name was announced." The underclass members were Junior-Tina Westmoreland; Sophomore-Christina Maldonado; Freshman-Patricia Alvarado. They were elected by their classmates. After the game and crowning, a dance was held in honor of the 1991-1992 homecoming. The theme of the dance was "From a Distance", taken from a song by Bette Midler representing the U.S. soldiers going to Saudi Arabia. 1991-1992, a year to never forget, let memories last forever.

Basketball

The 1992 basketball homecoming game, was a letdown . We lost . Despite losing the game we gained a new Miss Ingot Spirit .

Jenny Otero (1991 Miss Basketball) turns the team ball over to the 1992 Miss Basketball, Melissa Duran.

Dave Agnew and Melissa Duran were awarded 1992 Mr. and Miss Ingot Spirit.

Mark Aghakhan escorts Sue Griffin and Jennifer Henson.

Many couples show off how well these dresses can be slow danced in.

Show 1992

A sparkling outfit is flattering to Melissa Dorian.

The 1992 Prom Fashion Show was beautiful!

Much hard work and time were put into it by the people in the show, a yearbook fundraiser. His and Hers Bridal World sponsored the program by letting students model 50 stylish prom gowns and 5 tuxedos. They also furnished jewelry, and purses, while Cathy's Creations provided the flowers.

Claudia Herrera, Tony Buchler and Kanada Otsuka.

Kim House and Kevin Porsley show their attire.

TURNABOUT 1992

Turnabout '92 had the best turnout that River Forest has had at any social activity for many years. Over seventy-five couples attended. It was held on February 1 at 7:30 p. m. in the Ingot Room. The decor included candy kisses and lollipops. Mrs. McNabb, Miss Watkins, and members of the senior class put everything together to make the turnabout a great success.

Sharon DaVaney and her date look like characters from "Gone With the Wind."

Posing for cameras could become habit forming for prom goer Jennifer Johnson and her date.

Whether posing or dancing, these seniors are enjoying their last big dance as high school students.

"Make it Last Forever!"

Polly Lavrlik and Pete La Faucla cuddle after a slow dance!

Jennifer Johnson and Sharon Da Vaney impress their parents with their prom attire.

Letty Schmidt and Michelle Taylor dance up a storm!

The chaperons at Prom 1992 made more noise than all the students combined!

Teachers Can Express Themselves Too

EVERY TEACHER HAS A DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVE ON HOW THEY WANT TO TEACH. AS YOU CAN SEE, SOME TEACHERS ARE SERIOUS AND TEND NOT TO JOKE AROUND LIKE OTHER TEACHERS DO. FOR EXAMPLE, MRS. MCNABB LIKES TO HAVE FUN WITH HER CLASS, WHEREAS MR. REYGAERT HAS A MORE SERIOUS ATMOSPHERE. EVERY TEACHER IS DIFFERENT IN THEIR OWN SPECIAL WAY, SO COME ON GUYS: GIVE 'EM A BREAK.

MR. WELLS AND MR. WATKINS TAKE A MOMENT TO DISCUSS THE DAY'S EVENTS WHILE THE STUDENTS ENJOY A RARE FIRE DRILL.

MRS. KELLER ALWAYS ENJOYS STUDENTS BRINGING IN MORE AND MORE AD SALES IN THE YEARBOOK CLASS.

Marsha Gutierrez works on her body copy, trying to meet the deadline that lies ahead for the yearbook class, while other students of the class rush around to complete layouts.

Natalie Keller, advisor of the yearbook for the past three years, works hard every year to help make the yearbook a success.

Yearbook

Sharon DaVaney, who was in charge of designing the choir layout, OBSERVES one of her classmates with a look of disagreement.

Marsha Gutierrez, photographer for the yearbook, spent time in the halls, looking for photo opportunities.

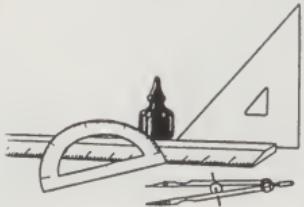

Jennifer Johnson, co-editor of the yearbook, helps a new-comer to the staff with the difficult computer work.

The 1992 yearbook has been going great! All deadlines were met. The fact that this was Mrs. Keller's third year as the advisor, has been on our side also. It took her some time, but she's finally catching on to all the hard work that comes with the job of being the advisor. Students have been working very hard and everything has fallen right into place. To help with the problem of finances, fundraisers included a fashion show and candy sale. Kelly Sholes, the editor of the yearbook, and Jennifer Johnson, the assistant editor of the yearbook, really keep the class in line when it comes to meeting our deadlines and keeping the students busy. The yearbook class included Ana Bran, Sharon DaVaney, Dan Djordjevich, Melissa Duran, Kristen Enders, Marsha Gutierrez, Cori Heridia, Chuck Horn, Stacey Jansen, Jennifer Johnson, Jennifer Kaehler, Pete LaFaucia, Melissa Paceley, Stephannie Riffle, Kelly Sholes, Russell Torres, Danielle Walton, and Willard Chandler.

GRADUATION

Kanade Otsuka walks with R.F. pride having just graduated.

Lorelei Trump and Ana Bran are being courteous hostesses handing out the senior graduation programs.

Jody Adams and James Taylor carry the Boys Tennis Banner.

VALEDICTORIAN

Valedictorian for this year's senior class was Tanya McAllister. Tanya plans to major in Pre-medicine at Indiana University Bloomington in the fall. She has participated in many things since her arrival at R. F. in the 10th grade. For instance she has been on the cheerleading squad for two years, "Who's Who" for three years, the Academic Team and Spell Bowl for a year, and has participated in the D.A.R.E. program at Meister Elementary School. She was also on the All-Conference Academic team. Having classes like Trig/Analytic Geometry, Biology 2, and Humanities made it difficult for her to keep up her G.P.A.

CO-SALUTATORIANS

One of the two Salutatorians this year was, David Agnew. David has been very active in his school participation. He was a member of the Honor Society and Student Council. Also, he participated in pep band, and marching band. Dave plans to study electrical technology at Purdue University.

Kim House was also named Salutatorian for the Class of "92". Kim has done many things to participate. She was in D.A.R.E., Operation Snowflake, Student Council, Cheerleading, and the field commander for marching band. Kim plans to major in Pre-medicine.

On June 2, 1992 seventy seniors, finally finished their long journey. GRADUATION!!! With mixed emotions they said good-bye to all their friends and loved ones, yet they will move toward their new goals in life. Valedictorian Tanya McAllister delivered a speech that brought tears to many eyes as she talked about the help of her family and friends given to her throughout her life, to finally reach her dream of going to Med-School. On the other hand Salutatorians Kim House and David Agnew brought laughter throughout the crowd remembering all the jokes and fun they had in High School.

The Senior girls' of '92 stand-up after just coming in from their walk down the gymnasium floor upon arrival of their diploma's.

These five Senior guys look ready to conquer the world.

Rudy, Ben, Tom, and Joey are dressed to impress at the graduation.

Modelyn Sanchez closes her eyes in amazement because her days of schools are finally over.

All the Senior girls are ready to party after their official freedom without school.

After receiving their diplomas, the Senior guys are eager to leave.

Danielle Walton smiles enthusiastically as she accepts her diploma.

SAYING FAREWELL

Saying farewell isn't easy, as we all may know

But yet, it seems harder when its time to go

We have to admit, we'll miss all of you

Farewell and good luck to the Class of '92"

A FOREIGN EXCHANGE

AS A STUDENT HERE AT RIVER FOREST HIGH SCHOOL FROM JAPAN, KANADE OTSUKA TOOK AN ADVENTURE BY LEAVING HER HOME. SHE CAME TO AMERICA AS A FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT TO MAKE A LOT OF FRIENDS IN AMERICA, TO FIND SOMETHING NEW IN HERSELF, AND TO DECIDE ON A CAREER FOR THE FUTURE. KANADE IS INTERESTED IN MANY SPORTS. SHE ENJOYS GYMNASTICS, SKIING, AND SWIMMING.

SHE WOULD LIKE TO BE A MEMBER OF THE GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM HERE AT RIVER FOREST. AFTER GRADUATION FROM RIVER FOREST SHE MUST RETURN TO JAPAN TO GRADUATE AGAIN. SHE HASN'T DECIDED ON WHERE SHE IS GOING TO GO TO COLLEGE- AMERICA OR JAPAN.

KANADE OTSUKA IS VERY EXCITED YET VERY NERVOUS ABOUT BEING HERE IN AMERICA. SHE REALLY LIKES IT HERE SO FAR, BUT SOME THINGS SHE FINDS VERY CONFUSING. EVERYONE HERE AT RIVER FOREST IS TRYING TO HELP HER FEEL MORE COMFORTABLE.

8th Graders Express Themselves

Over the years, the Junior High had accomplished many different ways of expressing itself. Junior High is a place where people get to know each other and, better yet, express themselves. There are many different ways to express yourself, such as through your personality, clothes, athletic abilities, and so on. The only problem is that not enough students express their real selves. Here, we have six eighth grade students that know exactly how to show these true identities. So check out these awesome eighth graders expressing themselves.

7th Grade

Coming from the elementary, the 7th graders have a lot to face! Starting from the bottom all over again. They have to deal with new teachers, new friends, new classes, and most of all not sitting in the same room all day! And they face many, many more challenges in the years to come.

The River Forest Student Council consists of very dedicated students. To be in Student Council, you don't have to be a "Doogie Howser" type of person. You just need to be someone who is very dependable so that when your class needs you, there will be no doubt whatsoever in your fellow classmates' minds that you will not be there. Some of the main things that Student Council does for the school is things like getting Homecoming and Turnabout. Although Student Council sometimes swipes your time right from you, it is very rewarding in the end.

Many students do not realize the importance of Future Homemakers of America, better known as FHA. The purposes of FHA are to provide opportunities for self-development and preparation for family and community living and for employment. Secondly, to strengthen the function of the family as the basic unit of society and to encourage democracy through co-operative action in the home and in the community. Finally, FHA has also instituted programs promoting greater understanding between the youth and the adults in the world today.

The Honor Society has many students. The Honor Society consists of Christina Fuentes, Christine Patterson, Tanya McAllister, Heather Walters, Cindy Wilson, Amy Penrod, Lisa Gillis, Mario Chavez, Sudryana Lopez, Amy Allen, Mickey Mouse, Dennis Hamilton, David Agnew, Polly Laverick, Tim Rodrick, Harvey Douglas, Christie Walker, Jamie Howard, Mark Aghakhan, Kim House, Brian Taylor, and Todd Wentz. These students have worked hard.

Freshmen

The 1988 football team was compiled of nine freshmen, five of which went on to graduate. The highlight of the season was the sectional championship. All the freshmen went and dressed, even a few of them were lucky enough to play. To them it was a chance of a lifetime to play against the bigger and more experienced guys. The Junior and Senior!! But the guys will never forget the joy of being able to play on the Varsity team in only their freshman year.

Sophomores

The '89' team was one of changes. The team lost two members from the previous year and gained but, yet gained five new players. The season had not really outstanding moments, but it had a lot of individual moments. Don Niemeyer remembered "the time he hit Jeremy Ogden, and dust and dirt flew every where". Eric Ast said "when I got hit at the Rensselaer game and later looked at the video tape, it looked worse than it was". Pete La Faucia thought when I was running after a fumble ball, just as I bent down to pick it up, Darren Guess slid between my legs and got the ball. The varsity team record was 4-5

Juniors

The 11th grade year was one of low turnout. Only five men played and all five of them lettered. The highlight of the season was going to Indy to play in the state championship. The other great moments were the overtime win of the conference championship over North Judson and the game no one will ever forget. The 99 yard drive win over Ft. Wayne Luers. "1991 was a dream season and it will be a long time before any one will forget it," said Eric Ast. "The best part of the season was all the remarkable finishes," added Don Niemeyer.

1991

The 1991 football season was exciting because it was the first year that a football team was ever ranked in the top ten. The team had many seniors turn out and and participate more than an other year. Some senior highlights of the season included Don Niemeyer's battle against an All-State from North Judson. "I made him look like a fool," said Don. Tommy Soria and Tony Buehler share their most memorable moment, being announced as the team captains.

Louis Mefford relaxes a little before his big golf match.

Kevin Heath attempts to make a hole in one.

This year's Golf team has held a better season in the past, but not yet to accomplish the prolonged dream to be state champs. Though the team only consisted of 7 people, they have worked very hard to accomplish the dream of winning. For the first time in R.F. history, a girl had the guts to take on the task of being on the Golf team. She had to take many jokes from the guys on the team. But she has proven a girl can play golf and be just as good as any guy can. One person on the team stated "Being on this team has taught me that, no matter when we lose, we've always done our best." The two seniors on the team are leaving us, but we still have the hard work of the other guys on the team to bring us that long-awaited dream of actually going down state in something besides the usual track team and the one-time football team. So just keep watching for the golf team to take us down state.

Freshman Joseph Gasken Varsity lettered in his first year playing golf.

DEDICATION PAYS OFF

With last years record the best in school history, what more can coach Detterline ask for? A sectional championship and with 4 seniors returning to the varsity squad that's exactly what he received. "Winning the schools first ever Sectional wasn't deserved by a better bunch of guys," said Coach Detterline. Throughout the season Coach Detterline praised his team for their hard work and concentration. But most of all for their dedication. He never saw a tennis team so devoted. They set a goal at the beginning of their season and followed it through until October 7th when they defeated our rival Lake Station 3-2 in the Sectional Championship.

Returning lettermen for the Ingots are Mark Aghakhan at #1 singles, All-Conference Johnny Gutierrez at #2 singles, Jody Adams, and Brian Taylor, who captured this years MVP's and Conference Honors filled the #1 doubles slot. Even with 4 men leaving, Coach Detterline feels optimistic about next years' season, if the loyalty continues.

Miguel Verdusczo rushes to return a falling ball in the alley.

All-Conference Brian Taylor returns a shot at the net as his partner Jody Adams prepares for the return.

All-Conference and #2 Singles, Johnny Gutierrez, concentrates on the ball.

#3 Singles, Jason Manship, puts everything he has in his first serve during a home match.

All-Sectional, Mark Aghakhan, searches for a spot to place his forehand return.

WAY TO GO GIRLS!

GIRLS MAKE IT 2 IN A ROW

Two championships that is. First they captured the conference championship, edging out Kankakee Valley with a victory at number one singles. Then two weeks later, they went over to Lake Station for the Sectional Championship and totally amazed everyone of their players with their dominating plays. "Who would have thought that three years ago, we would or could accomplish what we have this year," replied senior, Melissa Duran. The girls' season ended May 27 with a loss to #18 ranked, Valpo, in regional play. The Lady Ingots finished up with an outstanding record of 12-2. Their only defeat during dual matches came at the hands of Griffith when they squeaked by with a score of 3-2.

The Lady Ingots proved that with a little hard work and discipline anything can happen. With the loss of only three seniors, Melissa Duran, Jennifer Cook, and Stephenie Riffle, the ladies have a lot of good hope in the years to come.

All-sectional Brandie Stutler delivers a long ball before approaching the net.
